IDA ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

MISSION

To stimulate economic development, growth, and general prosperity for the people of Onondaga County by using available incentives, rights and powers in an efficient and cooperative manner.

PURPOSE & DESCRIPTION

The Onondaga County Industrial Development Agency (“the Agency”) is a public benefit corporation of the State of New York created in 1970 pursuant to Article 18-A of the General Municipal Law. Industrial Development Agencies are authorized to advance the job opportunities, health, general prosperity and economic welfare of the people of the State of New York and improve their recreation opportunities, prosperity and standard of living. Agencies promote, develop, encourage, and assist in the acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, improving, maintaining, equipping and furnishing of industrial, manufacturing, warehousing, commercial, research, recreational, education, cultural, railroad, and horse racing facilities.

STATUTORY BASIS

§ 895. Onondaga County Industrial Development Agency. 1. For the benefit of the County of Onondaga and the inhabitants thereof, an industrial development agency, to be known as the ONONDAGA COUNTY INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AGENCY, is hereby established for the accomplishment of any or all of the purposes specified in title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter. It shall constitute a body corporate and politic, and be perpetual in duration. It shall have the powers and duties now or hereafter conferred by title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter upon industrial development agencies. It shall be organized in a manner prescribed by and be subject to the provisions of title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter. Its members shall be appointed by the governing body of the County of Onondaga. The agency, its members, officers and employees, and its operations and activities, except as provided specifically herein, shall be governed by the provisions of title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter.

2. In addition to the powers and duties now or hereafter conferred by title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter, the agency shall have the power (i) to acquire, construct, own, maintain, and lease or sell to a railroad or private business corporation any interest including easements or rights or way, in one or more railroad supporting service facilities located in Onondaga County, including necessary switching apparatus, track, and other equipment necessary or convenient thereto, which will be used in conjunction with industrial, manufacturing, commercial or warehousing operations and (ii) to finance such facilities through the issuance of its bonds and notes, when in the judgment of the agency, such facilities will serve to promote, develop, encourage and assist in the acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, improving, maintaining, equipping and furnishing industrial, manufacturing, warehousing, commercial and research facilities including industrial pollution control facilities and thereby advance the job opportunities, health and general prosperity and economic welfare of the people of the state and improve their prosperity and standard of living.

OPERATIONS & PROGRAMS

SUMMARY

- A seven-member board appointed by the Onondaga County Legislature governs the Agency.
- Operating funds are derived solely from fees paid by applicants seeking assistance, closed Agency projects and the interest earned on the Agency fund balance.
- The Onondaga County Office of Economic Development administers the Onondaga County Industrial Agency through a contract between the County and the Agency.
- During the January - December 31, 2022 fiscal year, the Agency conducted 40 public meetings. These meetings included 12 regular board meetings, 3 special meetings, 1 annual meeting, 1 Organizational meeting, 6 committee meetings, and 17 public hearings.
- An independent certified public accounting firm performs the annual financial audit of the Agency. The report will be available after March 31, 2023 at <https://www.ongoved.com/ocida/>

PROGRAMS & INCENTIVES

The Agency provides business support and operates incentive programs consistent with its powers and mission statement in the following areas:

- Financing – Tax-exempt private activity bonds, taxable bonds and Quasi-Equity Loan Fund participation. Statutory authority to issue civic facility bonds has terminated.
- Tax Management – Exemptions from mortgage recording, sales and use taxes and abatement of real property taxes through payment-in-lieu of tax agreements
- Training Support – Service contracts for company specific employee training and skills assessment programs consistent with its Employee Productivity Program guidelines
- Asset Development – Development of property and facilities for investment, for example the White Pine Commerce Park

- New jobs associated with new capital projects are 121.5 FTE.
- Continued remediation planning and work at the Roth Steel property located at 800 Hiawatha Blvd, Syracuse.
- White Pine Commerce Park -Micron's investment into a memory semiconductor manufacturer at the White Pine Commerce Park in Onondaga County will make it one of the largest construction projects in North America. Micron plans to invest up to $100 billion over next 20 years building a mega-complex of computer chip manufacturing and is set to provide 50,000 jobs throughout the area, with 9,000 working directly for the company.
- OCIDA staff continues to build relationships with local municipalities on economic development activities and information about the IDA financial assistance.
- OCIDA partners provide workforce development through connections with CNY Works, Department of Labor, Onondaga Community College, and many other partners available on the OCIDA website.
- OCIDA is continuing to update information from local employers who are expanding and hiring. The local employers are listed on the website and new postings are submitted on the regular.

ASSESSMENT OF THE EFFECTIVENESS OF INTERNAL CONTROL STRUCTURE AND PROCEDURES ²

This statement certifies that management has documented and assessed the internal control structure and procedures of the Onondaga County Industrial Development Agency for the year ending December 31, 2022. This assessment found the authority's internal controls to be adequate, and to the extent that deficiencies were identified, the authority has developed corrective action plans to reduce any corresponding risk. The assessment for the 2022 fiscal year will be completed by March 31, 2023. This is done by agency auditor. (Appendix F)

He served as President of the National Association of Advertising Publishers from 1976-1978 and was a board member for fifteen years participating in all activities of the association. Mr. Ianno now serves as an active mentor and business investor assisting small business startups as well as owning and developing real estate.

Janice Herzog

Janice Herzog is the former director of external relations for the Burton Blatt Institute at Syracuse University. Herzog served as a liaison to the BBI Board of Advisors. She worked closely with the board to facilitate effective and timely communications, manage board operations and engagement, and follow up on board initiatives. Before joining BBI, Herzog worked for more than 20 years at Syracuse University College of Law. During that time, she was a member of the dean's senior staff and served as assistant dean for administration and external relations as well as director of external relations. In addition to working closely with the College of Law's board and executive committee, she has extensive experience in law school administrative operations and human resources management operations. She also worked in collaboration with the Office of Advancement in the areas of prospect management and engagement, donor and alumni relations, and fundraising. She has been a panel facilitator as well as speaker for the American Bar Association and the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) on topics related to board management and transformation and the board member's role in fundraising.

Steven Morgan

Steven Morgan is the owner and President of Dependable Disposal and Morgan Rubbish Removal in the town of Van Buren. Steven has been involved in the environmental-waste management sector in the Syracuse-Onondaga County area for over 24 years. Both companies provide environmentally safe waste removal and recycling solutions for residential, industrial and commercial customers. Steven believes very strongly in long-term business growth for the area that is accretive and that businesses have a civic and moral obligation to their community. Since 1990 Steven has been involved in the waste management business. In the beginning he worked alongside his father, David Morgan, in the family business. After college, he was employed by Tessy Plastics in Elbridge as a product cost engineer while still involved in the family business.

In 2001 Steven started Dependable Disposal and in 2002 he purchased his father's business. Since then the companies have experienced significant growth and now rank among the largest independent waste and recycling companies in the Syracuse market. Currently, Steven is leading a progressive movement in service improvement, community uniformity, increased recycling rates, and worker safety in Onondaga County with automated containerized service for residential customers. Steven is a graduate of Jordan-Elbridge High School and later graduated from Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management. Steven is a member or supporter of Centerstate CEO, Cayuga County Chamber of Commerce, Jordan-Elbridge Lions Club, Syracuse Tip Club, McMahon/Ryan Child Advocacy Center and the National Waste and Recycling Association.

Kevin Ryan

Kevin Ryan is an attorney in private practice. His practice focuses on all aspects of construction law, representing owners, contractors, and sub-contractors in dispute resolution through arbitration, mediation, or litigation, as well as in both jury and non-jury trials. In addition, he handles commercial disputes and insurance coverage matters, and has successfully represented clients in Article 78 proceedings both on behalf of and against municipalities relating to development projects and the award of public contracts. He is admitted to practice in the State of New York, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of New York, the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the U.S. Court of Federal Claims. As an active member of his community, Kevin is a former member of the Board of Directors of the Syracuse St. Patrick's Parade, and is a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Strathmore Men's Athletic Club. Kevin is a graduate of the State University of New York at Brockport and the Syracuse University College of Law.

Section 6. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall not be a member of the Agency. The Treasurer shall be the Chief Financial Officer of the Agency. He shall have the care and custody of all funds of the Agency and shall deposit all such funds in the name of the Agency as the Agency may designate. Except as otherwise authorized by resolution of the Agency, the Treasurer shall sign all checks for the payment of money by the Agency pursuant to the direction of the Agency. Except as otherwise authorized by resolution of the Agency, all such checks shall be countersigned by the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman or the Executive Director. The Treasurer shall keep regular books of accounts showing receipts and expenditures. The Treasurer shall render to the Agency at each regular meeting an account of the financial transactions and the current financial condition of the Agency.

Section 7A. Executive Director. The Executive Director shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Agency and shall not be a member of the Agency. The Executive Director shall be the Onondaga County Director of Economic Development, a position that is appointed by the Onondaga County Executive Director and confirmed by affirmative vote of the Onondaga County Legislature. The Executive Director shall have general supervision over the administration of the business and affairs of the Agency, subject to the direction of the Agency. The Executive Director shall be charged with the management of all projects of the Agency. The Executive Director shall sign (manually or by facsimile signature) all agreements, contracts, deeds, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness and any other instruments of the Agency on behalf of the Agency, except as otherwise authorized or directed by resolution of the Agency.

Section 8. Additional Duties. In the absence or incapacity of the Treasurer, the other officers of the Agency shall have the care and custody of all funds of the Agency and the power to deposit the same in the name of the Agency in such bank or banks as the Agency may designate, and shall have the power to sign all checks of the Agency for the payment of money and the power to pay out and disburse such moneys under the direction of the Agency. In addition, all officers of the Agency shall perform such other duties and functions as may from time to time be required by the Agency, by its bylaws, or by its rules and regulations.

Section 9. Appointment of Officers. All officers of the Agency shall be appointed at the Annual Meeting of the Agency or at such other time as is necessary due to a vacancy. All officers shall hold offices for one year or until their successors are appointed. If the term of an Agency member should terminate, his term of office as an officer shall also terminate. The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer shall not be members of the Agency.

Section 10. Members of Agency. There shall be seven members of the Agency who shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be entitled to the necessary expenses, including traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of their duties. The term of the office of each member of the Agency shall be by appointment of the Onondaga County Legislature and each member shall continue to hold office until their successor is appointed and has qualified.

Section 11. Vacancies. Should any office except that of Chairman become vacant, the Agency shall appoint a successor at the next regular meeting, and such appointment shall be for the unexpired term of said office.

Section 12. Additional Personnel. The Agency may from time to time employ such personnel, as it deems necessary to exercise its powers, duties and functions as prescribed by the New York State Industrial Development Agency Act, as amended, and all other laws of the State of New York applicable thereto. The selection and compensation of all personnel shall be determined by the Agency subject to the laws of the State of New York.

ARTICLE III MEETINGS

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of the Agency shall be held within the first quarter of the year or such time that the Board may determine at the regular meeting place of the Agency or such other time and place as the Agency shall determine.

Section 2. Meetings. Meetings of the Agency may be held at such times and places as from time to time may be determined by the Agency. The Chairman of the Agency may, when he deems it desirable, and shall, upon the written request of two members of the Agency, call a special meeting of the Agency. Notice of all meetings shall be sent by United States mail, electronic mail, or delivered to the residence or business address of each member, and to Agency Counsel, at least four days prior to the day the meeting is to occur. Whenever possible the notice shall set forth the matters to be considered at the meeting. Waivers of notice may be signed by any member or members who were not properly noticed.

Section 3. Executive Sessions. Upon motion identifying the general area(s) of the subject(s) to be considered and a majority vote of the membership, an executive session may be entered into and conducted by the Agency for the reasons enumerated in Public Officers Law § 105. During an executive session the Agency may take action on the matters which are the subject of the executive session, however, no action by formal vote may be taken in an executive session to appropriate public moneys. Minutes must be taken of any action that is taken by formal vote, and must consist of a record or summary of a final determination and the vote thereon. The minutes do not need to include any matters not required to be made available to the public pursuant to FOIL.

Section 4. Quorum. At all meetings of the Agency, a majority of the Agency shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of transacting business; provided that a small number may meet and adjourn to some other time or until a quorum is obtained.

ARTICLE IV AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendments to Bylaws. The bylaws of the Agency may be amended with the approval of a super majority of all the members of the Agency at a meeting, but no such amendment shall be adopted unless written notice thereof has been previously given to all members of the Agency.

ARTICLE V PROJECTS

Section 1. Site of Agency Projects. The Agency shall take local and state land use and environmental laws and regulations into consideration when reviewing and approving a project.

Section 2. Compliance with Laws. The Agency shall not approve the delivery of bonds for a project, which, at the time of such delivery is known by the Agency after reasonable inquiry to be in material violation of applicable zoning, environmental, labor or health laws or regulations, including applicable building and fire codes.

ARTICLE VI COMMITTEES

Section 1. Governance Committee. The Agency shall have a governance committee to be comprised of the Agency Chairman and two other members of the Agency appointed by the Chairman. Members of the Governance Committee shall be independent members as defined by the Public Authorities Accountability Act of 2005, as amended from time to time. The Governance Committee shall have such other purposes, powers, responsibilities and governance as provided in any charter adopted by the members of the Agency.

Section 2. Audit Committee. The Agency shall have an audit committee to be comprised of the Agency Chairman and two other members of the Agency appointed by the Chairman. Members of the Audit Committee shall be independent members as defined by the Public Authorities Accountability Act of 2005, as amended from time to time. It shall be the responsibility of the Audit Committee to recommend to the Agency the hiring of a certified independent accounting firm for the Agency, establish the compensation to be paid to the accounting firm and provide direct oversight of the performance of the independent audit performed by the accounting firm hired for such purpose. The Audit Committee shall have such other purposes, powers, responsibilities and governance as provided in any charter adopted by the members of the Agency.

Section 3. Finance Committee. The Agency shall have a finance committee to be comprised by the three members of the Agency appointed by the Chairman. Members of the Finance Committee shall be independent members as defined by the Public Authorities Accountability Act of 2009, as amended from time to time. It shall be the responsibility of the Finance Committee to review proposals for the issuance of debt for the Agency and make recommendations to the Agency regarding the issuance of such debt; seek any information it requires from the Agency and project applicants regarding the proposals for the issuance of debt and retain and consult with, at the Agency's expense, such outside counsel, experts and other advisors as the Finance Committee may deem appropriate. The Finance Committee shall have such other purposes, powers, responsibilities and governance as provided by any charter adopted by the members of the Agency.

Section 4 Other Committees. The Agency may designate from among its members other committees, each consisting of one or more members, and each of which, to the extent provided in the resolution or committee charter, shall have all the authority of the Agency members, except as otherwise provided by law.

APPENDIX D

CODE OF ETHICS

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

The Citizens of Onondaga County are entitled to expect the highest degree of conduct on the part of the Onondaga County Industrial Development Agency (the "Agency") officers, employees and members. The members of the Agency recognize that there must be rules of ethical conduct for its officers, employees and appointed officials to observe if a high degree of moral conduct is to be obtained and if public confidence is to be maintained in the Agency. It is the purpose of this Code of Ethics to promulgate these rules of ethical conduct for the officers, employees and members of the Agency. These rules shall serve as a guide for official conduct of such officers, employees and members.

ARTICLE II. DEFINITIONS

Section 2.1.

Unless otherwise specifically indicated, for purposes of this Code of Ethics, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- (a) "Agency" means the Onondaga County Industrial Development Agency.
- (b) "Appropriate body" pursuant to Article 18 of General Municipal Law means the Board of Ethics of the County of Onondaga.
- (c) "Child" means any son, daughter, step-son or step-daughter of an Agency officer, employee or member if such child is under 18 or is a dependent of the officer, employee or member as defined in the Internal Revenue Code Section 152(a)(1) and (2) and any amendments thereto.
- (d) "County" means the County of Onondaga.
- (e) "Interest" means a direct or indirect pecuniary or material benefit accruing to an Agency officer, employee or member, his or her spouse, or child whether as the result of a contract with the Agency or otherwise. For the purpose of this Code of Ethics, an Agency officer, employee or member shall be deemed to have an interest in the contract of (i) his/her spouse and children, except a contract of employment with the Agency (ii) a firm, partnership or association of which such officer, employee or member or his/her spouse or child is a member or employee; (iii) a corporation of which such officer, employee or member, or his/her spouse or child is an officer or director; and (iv) a corporation of which more than 5% of the outstanding capital stock is owned by an officer, employee or member, or his/her spouse or child.
- (f) "Relative" means a spouse or child of an Agency officer, employee or member.

- (g) "Spouse" means the husband or wife of an officer, employee or member subject to the provisions of this Code of Ethics unless legally separated from such officer, employee or member.

ARTICLE III. CODE OF ETHICS

There is hereby established and adopted a code of ethics containing the following standards of conduct for officers, employees and members of the Agency.

Section 3.1.

a. Conflict of Interest. No officer, employee or member of the Agency should have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest.

b. Impressions. No officer, employee or member of the Agency should by his conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence him or unduly enjoy his favor in the performance of his official duties, or that he is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person. An officer or employee or member of the Agency should endeavor to pursue a course of conduct, which will not raise suspicion among the public that he is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his trust.

c. Receipt or Benefit. No officer, employee, or member of the Agency shall use or attempt to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself or others, including directly or indirectly soliciting, accepting or agreeing to accept any benefit from another person upon an agreement that his/her vote, opinion, judgment, action, decision or exercise of discretion as an Agency officer, employee or member will thereby be influenced. A donation to a person seeking public or party office or to a committee supporting the efforts of such person shall not be considered such a benefit hereunder.

d. Confidential Information. No officer or employee or member of the Agency shall disclose information which is lawfully confidential and acquired by him in the course of his official duties or use such information to further his personal interests.

e. Representation before the Agency. An officer, employee or member of the Agency shall not receive or enter into any agreement, express or implied, for compensation or benefit to himself or a relative, directly or indirectly, for services to be rendered in relation to any matter before the Agency.

f. Disclosure of interest in any Agency Contract. To the extent that he knows thereof, any officer, employee or member of the Agency who has any interest in any contract or agreement of the Agency shall make prior disclosure in writing to the Chairman of the Agency and to the Agency's Counsel and shall withdraw from participation in any Agency process with respect thereto, subject to Section 801 of the General Municipal Law relating to prohibited conflicts of interest.

g. Partnership, unincorporated association or corporation. No partnership or unincorporated association of which an Agency officer, employee or member is a member or employee or in which he or she has a proprietary interest, nor any corporation of which an Agency officer, employee or member is an officer or director or legally or beneficially owns or controls more than five percent (5%) of the outstanding stock, shall appear before the Agency without full disclosure to the members, subject to Section 801 of the General Municipal Law relating to prohibited conflicts of interest.

h. Investments in conflict with official duties. (i) An officer, employee or member shall not invest or hold any investment directly or indirectly in any financial, business, commercial or other private endeavor or entity, which creates a conflict with his or her Agency duties; (ii) No officer or employee or member of the Agency shall engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the Agency with any business entity in which he has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his official duties.

i. Private employment or services. An officer, employee or member shall not engage in, solicit, negotiate for or promise to accept employment or render services for private interests when such employment or service creates a conflict of interest with or impairs the proper discharge of official Agency duties. In the event such a conflict arises with respect to a member, (s)he shall notify the Chairman of the Agency of same and withdraw from participation in any Agency process with respect thereto.

j. Future employment. For a period of one (1) year after the termination of service or employment with the Agency, no former officer, employee or member, on his or her own behalf, or as an employee, agent or representative of another may apply to or appear before or conduct business with respect to the Agency in any matter concerning which he or she personally rendered substantial services and made policy decisions during the period of his or her term of office, service or employment by the Agency. Said one (1) year prohibition may be waived by the members for good cause upon written application for such officer, employee or member. At the expiration of the one (1) year period and thereafter, the former officer, employee or member shall make prior disclosure in writing to the members of the nature and extent of his/her Agency involvement with matters (s)he now seeks to address with the Agency.

k. Offer of Employment. An officer, employee or member shall disclose in writing to the members any offer of employment received from any person, firm or corporation which, to the knowledge of such officer, employee or member, is furnishing or seeking to furnish goods or services to the Agency, if such officer, employee or member has substantial involvement or responsibility for policy making in securing such goods or services and if such officer, employee or member enters into negotiations for such employment. Such disclosure must be made whether or not such offer and negotiations are verbal or written and whether or not the offer is accepted.

l. Sale of Goods or Services. No officer or employee or member of the Agency employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such Agency member, officer or employee is a member nor corporation, a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such member, officer or employee, should sell goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the Agency.

APPENDIX E
MISSION STATEMENT & PERFORMANCE MEASURES

MISSION STATEMENT

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

Performance Goal One: To use Agency incentives, programs and policies stimulate economic development, growth and prosperity to encourage the growth of industrial, commercial and “new economy” net-wealth generating businesses in Onondaga County.

The Agency held 12 regular board meetings and 7 special meetings that induced projects in the industrial, commercial and new-economy related industry.

The Agency induced 14 projects and closed 12 in 2021.

The 12 projects new capital investment was approximately $197,179,911.

Performance Goal Two: To use Agency incentives, programs and policies stimulate economic development, growth and prosperity to encourage smart growth & sustainable investment into Onondaga County.

Recently the Agency revised the Uniform Tax Exemption Policy to incorporate energy projects. This year the agency closed on three solar projects and induced five.

Staff has engaged with municipalities and school districts to discuss the Agency’s energy policies and to be a resource.

Performance Goal Three: To use Agency incentives, programs and policies stimulate economic development, growth & prosperity to support businesses striving to compete in and react to the global economy.

The Agency continues to develop the White Pine Commerce Park to attract those in the global stage such as a semiconductor manufacturer to meet the growing need for semiconductor chips.

Performance Goal Four: To use Agency incentives, programs and policies to stimulate economic development, growth & prosperity to encourage entrepreneurs and new business development.

Agency staff is developing a marketing strategy to increase outreach to new businesses and entrepreneurs to increase awareness of IDA benefits in addition to increasing our website information and social media presence.

Agency staff had strong stewardship of developing Hancock Air Park in 2021. The 225+ acre industrial and office park in the Town of Cicero, is an attractive location for business expansion and economic growth for Onondaga County. Since assuming management responsibilities of the park in 2014, OCDC has captured over $800,000 in revenues and will exceed a million dollars with the addition of two land purchases in Q1 2022.

Performance Goal Five: For the Agency to perform its duties in a cooperative and efficient manner through proactive open communication with its economic development partners, businesses and the community as a whole.

Agency staff regularly interacts with local and state economic development partners, municipalities, school districts, business owners and entrepreneurs. Staff provides information on the types of financial assistance available through OCIDA, possible sites available for development and resources that support and encourage economic growth in the area.
